Bethlehem Public Library
Where Readers Are Leaders
32 Main Street South, Bethlehem, Connecticut 06751 Telephone/Fax: 203 266-7792 www.bethlehemlibraryct.org

The Friends of the Bethlehem Public Library present

A Literary Coffeehouse
Sunday, Nov 15th from 3:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Our Literary Coffeehouses bring a pleasing variety of literary creativity to enthusiastic audiences. We hope area writers will again consider making application to read their writings at this upcoming event. There are our guidelines:

1. Time your reading (limit of 8-10 minutes maximum, please!)

2. Clearly write out or type the following information :
   your name, address, phone and email
   include a sentence or two of your bio-information or give me permission to use last year's bio.
   the title and genre of your reading,

3. attach a copy of your literary work

4. Submit via e-mail to: Gail Ouimet barbandgail@optonline.net: or a paper copy to Literary Coffeehouse Committee c/o Bethlehem Public Library
   P.O. Box 99, Bethlehem, CT 06751

5. All requests/entries should be submitted no later than Nov. 5 to the library address. or via e-mail to: barbandgail@optonline.net

6. The program fills quickly and submissions are accepted in the order they are received.
   You will be informed of acceptance by mail, phone or email.

We welcome new writers and varied genres!
For more information call Gail Ouimet at 203-560-2162